Throughout his legal career, Mike Segal has practiced in a business management environment. For more than 25 years, he has been heavily involved in the creation and representation of large single specialty and multi-specialty physician groups.

He also has considerable experience in structuring all varieties of healthcare joint venture transactions, keeping in mind the various regulatory issues. Additionally, he acts as general and special counsel to hospitals, large medical groups, and other medically related businesses.

Mr. Segal is a frequent presenter on healthcare law. He has recently presented on accountable care organizations, clinical integration, and all things healthcare reform to medical associations and other healthcare organizations throughout Florida. He has also previously presented on medical malpractice at conferences across the United States.

He is a certified American Health Lawyer Association Dispute Resolver, a designation that qualifies him to serve as a mediator and arbitrator in forums for alternative dispute resolution.

Throughout his career, Mr. Segal has been heavily involved in charitable community activities. Currently, he is the president of his local synagogue. He was formerly an officer and director of the Greater Miami Jewish Federation, and for more than a decade was a director of the Jewish Community Centers Association of North America.
